Profile

Driven and innovative software engineering student with a solid background in building dynamic web applications and real-time systems. Skilled in creating scalable solutions through web projects and Firebase-powered apps, with a focus on backend development. Passionate about solving complex problems and delivering meaningful, impactful results, always ready to approach new challenges with enthusiasm and creativity.

Projects

■ Random Script

- Developed a web application using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript that generates random winners, QR codes, and teams. Focused on ensuring randomness, efficient performance, and a responsive user interface.

■ AgriFarm

- Co-developed a platform offering farmers access to government schemes, disease information and solutions, a fertilizer calculator, and a chatbot for resolving queries. The project aimed to enhance agricultural efficiency and provide real-time support to farmers.

■ MentorMate

- Developed an Android app using Java, XML, and Firebase, providing mentorship for users dealing with relationship issues, overthinking, self-doubt, family conflicts, and career challenges. The app connects users with mentors who offer guidance and solutions to help them overcome their difficulties
